2 Local GI Brothers Finally Meet in Korea

By NORMAND POIRIER
(Mercury Staff Writer)

Two brothers from Pottstown, who had been blasting the Communists from separate sections of the Korean battle-front for months, finally ran into one another behind the lines the past week.

LORRIN BEIDLER

RONALD BEIDLER

Cpl. Ronald Beidler and Pfc. Lorrin Beidler, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Beidler, 206 Elm street, South Pottstown, spent a full day together on April 12.

Mrs. Beidler received a letter from 20-year-old Lorrin yesterday in which he wrote an account of his visit with his brother.

"I was up there all day," he wrote. "I'm only about six miles from him, but the roads are so bad it takes about two hours to get there."

• • •

CPL. RONALD Beidler is with the 35th tank company. He enlisted on Sept. 13, 1951 and has been in Korea for the past nine months. He's 21 years old.

His brother Lorrin enlisted in the Army on Jan. 24, 1952.

The two hadn't seen one another since 1951, when the elder brother joined the service.

The brothers were in the thick of action at the same time, from October to March. Ronald was in the section called Happy Valley, while Lorrin was in the Punch Bowl sector.

On the back of the picture of Lorrin (front page) was written the following comments: "Took three months to build the bunker 'cause we cut the logs and carried

Two Vehicles Crash, Man Pinned Under Truck on Highway

A Trappe man was injured slightly and a Norristown man was trapped under a panel truck in a two-truck accident on Route 422 near Collegeville late last night.

Raymond Fishlock, Linden drive, Trappe, owner of a Collegeville television store, and driver of the panel truck, was proceeding east on Route 422 on Mile hill when he ran into the rear of a parked steel truck.

A passenger, Paul McFarland, 48, of Norristown, was pinned nuder the truck.

Fishlock wandered frantically about the scene of the accident and called in the cool night, "Where's my buddy? Where's my buddy?"

• • •

A PASSERBY finally saw McFarland under the body of the truck which had turned over on its right side after striking the rear of the steel truck.

Fishlock and the driver of the parked truck were charged with assault and battery by automobile. Both appeared before Lower Providence Justice of the Peace Russell Campaman. They were released after providing $500 bail.

It took eight men to lift the truck off the injured McFarland.

He was taken to Montgomery hospital, Norristown, in a Montgomery ambulance.

A hospital spokesman early this morning pronounced his condition "very serious." He suffered a possible concussion, possible fractures of the right shoulder, right ribs and back, a deep gash of the forehead,

DRIVER BURNS TO DEATH IN AUTOISTS' VIEW

Witnesses Say Auto Crashed Through Barricade

An unidentified man who blew his horn desperately for help while horror-stricken spectators stood by helplessly beside his flame-enveloped car, burned to death shortly after midnight today.

The man was tentatively identified as Earl L. Loose, Douglassville RD 1, from the license plates on the car.

But the victim's identity still was not positive at press time last night.

According to eye-witnesses, the death car rammed through a barricade of wooden horses and lighted flares on Route 422 about four miles east of Reading.

He was traveling east towards Pottstown. The car, according to witnesses, tipped over and burst instantly into flames as it lay on its left side.

Truck drivers and other motorists pulled up immediately and went to work with extinguishers.

The male occupant of the car moved around inside the car in an attempt to escape.

He blew his horn for several minutes as a signal for help.

• • •

BUT THE roaring flames, that spread from the gas tank to the engine to finally completely envelop the car, kept rescuers back.

After a few minutes, one eyewitness said, the horn stopped blowing.

One dazed spectator muttered, "What a way to die."

According to the Rev. Robert Neilson, pastor of Colebrookdale chapel, who was right behind the car when it shot through the barricade and flipped over, the right rear wheel of the vehicle ran off into a section of the road that had been dug up.

As he explained it, a section of the road—about one lane of it—was torn up for repairs. The depth of the hole, according to another witness, was about 10 inches.

• • •

THE REV. Neilson said when the right rear wheel dipped into the hole the rear end of the car hit the pavement. The gas tank was probably broken open.

The car then shot over on its side and burst immediately into flames.

The Rev. Neilson and several other truck drivers were at the scene seconds after the flames started but couldn't do anything to help.

When the fire was finally

Past Years Brought To Life for 1200 At Antiques Display

By PETER LAMANA
(Mercury Staff Writer)

What is in a pot 100 years old? Someone at the Pottstown Antiques show at the Sunnybrook ballroom may have the answer.

Yesterday, during the first of a three-day exhibition by the Antique Dealers association, approximately 1200 persons roamed about the ball room floor in search of something they might like.

Antique dealers from upper New York state, northern Pennsylvania and points south were among the visitors. Some came to buy while others merely came to look around. In all, however, a good sales turnover was reported by merchants.

Items of all sorts—some dating back to the 17th century—are on display. The small displays by the 47 dealers are conveniently situated on the floor, giving full view of the many decorative pieces on display. In a few seconds the eye can scan from one century of culture to another.

• • •

PRESIDENT SILAS STAHL reported that the response to the show has been so good that the group is anticipating another show in the Fall. The result of the Fall show will determine whether the annual affair will eventually become a bi annual feature.

Oliver Lewis Christman, show chairman, has on display a concentration of primitive and early 18th century items. Among his collection he has several Betty lamps which, according to Christman, are one of the earliest types of home lighting.

Another item in the Christman display is a table lazy Susan which was made from portions of the old covered bridge at Douglassville.

Merle Wenrich's booth is neatly arranged with early American furniture. A very rare miniature set of chester drawers dating back to 1740 is among her prize items. Most of the furniture is of Pennsylvania Dutch origin, including a

Shop Stewards Discuss Safety and Grievances

Stewards of Bethlehem Local 2177, United Steel Workers (CIO), last night discussed grievances and safety procedure.

All shop stewards, officers and members of the grievance committee attended last night's session in the CIO hall, 364 King street.

Stewards will conduct their next meeting at 1 o'clock on the afternoon of Sunday, May 3, an hour before the local meeting in the CIO hall.

World Too Much: Lost Parakeet Dies

Ricky, the green-feathered parakeet that flew away from the two little daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Celan Schaeffer, 1106 North Franklin street, is dead.

The parakeet was found dead on her front lawn by Mrs. Richard E. Potts, 950 North Charlotte street.

The too-smart bird, who took to the cold, cruel world after learning how to say, "Hi ya, Ricky," was discovered by Mrs. Potts' dog who barked and barked until his mistress came to investigate.

But Carol, 4, and Kathy, 2, daughters of the Schaeffer's, won't have to mourn long. Their father said last night that he'd get them a new "Ricky" right away.

Burma's Got Monsoons, Florida Has Sun—But Local Weather Tops 'Em All

Burma has monsoons. Siberia has blizzards. Florida has sunshine. Arizona has droughts.

—But Pottstown—at least this month—has them all beat.

Pottstown has had a combination of all weather phenomena. And sometimes all on the same day!

Yesterday, women walked on High street garbed in everything from fur coats to sun back dresses.

And no wonder. The day started out with the mercury in the 30's. By 6 o'clock it was only one degree above freezing.

• • •

THEN IT STARTED to warm up, as if it were Spring. The fur coats looked ridiculous and the sun dresses in style. But in the afternoon, around 3 o'clock, it started getting cold again.

And snow flurries started making the Spring styles look as out of place as girdles in a harem.

By 9 o'clock the thermometer showed that Spring couldn't make up its mind whether to stay or not.

The mercury dipped to 39 at 10 p. m. and slipped to 37 by one o'clock this morning.

The lowest ever recorded for any April 21 was 26 above zero.

It didn't look as though any records were going to be broken but with snow flurries again predicted for today Pottstown's April weather should be given some kind of award for its fractiousness

Optimistic Pottstown golfers — sure that old man Winter would never "roar back" on them — had already started "keeping their eyes on the ball." But yesterday, Mrs. Grant Rohrbach, (left) Linden apartments, and Kathy Ball 144 Sunrise lane, displayed the kinds of fashions to which weather-confused Pottstonians were turning. The temperature dropped to a near freezing 33 at one point yesterday and then rose to a Spring-like 49. Many women, like Mrs. Rohrbach, turned to their fur coats. And little 16-month-old Grant Rohrbach Jr. welcomed the warmth of his snow suit as snow flurries fell in the afternoon.

Church Theft Report Takes Top Prize in Newstip Contest

A Pottstown woman who spent a busy and fruitful few minutes investigating a church burglary by telephone was winner yesterday of the first prize in The Mercury's weekly newstip contest.

Mrs. John Koury, 15 South Price street, saw a suspicious-looking man go into St. John's Reformed church and come out with a television set.

She contacted the pastor, watched the church like a hawk and got a description of the man and copied down his license number. She won $5.

Second prize of $2 was won by Mrs. Celan Schaeffer, 1106 North Franklin street, for a tip on the disappearance of a little parakeet beloved by Mrs. Schaeffer's two little daughters.

• • •

MRS. WINFIELD FINKBINER, Spring City RD 1, won third prize of $2 for a report that the first Mennonite school in the Pottstown area was being built.

N. S. Fegley, 405 East Fourth street, Boyertown, walked into The Mercury office with a tip that a car had just smashed into a porch in Gilbertsville. He won a cash bonus prize.

There's no need for a trip to

Toot Welcomes Back Absent Horn Blasts

A stray toot on the fire horn welcomed back the transmitter to borough hall.

Borough Fire Chief Richard E. Lindauer said the transmitter was returned from the Gamewell Equipment company's plant near Boston, Mass., over the wekend, and has been hooked up again.

While it was being worked on and checked, the one blast sounded at 9 o'clock.

When the transmitter was absent, it was impossible for desk sergeants at borough hall to have the fire horn sound the patterns of blasts for a fire call. The only way the horn could be sounded

Area Driver Charged With Striking Youth Freed on $1500 Bail

A 57-year-old Pottstown area man whose car reportedly struck and critically injured a 16-year-old boy posted $1500 bail yesterday on charges of drunk-driving and aggravated assault and battery by auto.

Michael Kozich, Level road, Collegeville RD 2, posted it after he was held for court by Justice of the Peace George C. Rittenhouse, Jeffersonville, who conducted a hearing yesterday morning.

The boy struck by the auto, Fred Hatfield, Jeffersonville, remained in "critical" condition yesterday in Montgomery hospital, Norristown.

Recreation Directors Add Two Tot Lots to List of Playgrounds

Two tot lots have been added to Pottstown's recreation facilities.

The recreation commission last night announced the opening of the Brookside and Washington tot lots.

Apparatus and leadership at the Brookside lot will be furnished by the commission and the neighborhood will direct the landscaping and fencing of the area.

At the Washington lot, the PTA will provide the apparatus and the commission will furnish leadership.

The two areas will be added to the nine playgrounds maintained by the commission the past year.

• • •

THE COMMISSIONERS, meeting in the home of Director Robert A. Reis, last night discussed the possibility of setting back the opening date of playgrounds one week.

If the plan is approved, playgrounds would open the first week of July and close the first week of August.

The change in schedule may be necessary because some play-

County Court Judges Find Against Liquor Association As They Rule Local Option Petitions Valid for Elections

By Staff Correspondent

NORRISTOWN, April 20 — Organized opposition of the liquor interests to local option in Upper Providence township suffered a setback today when the Montgomery County court ruled that the question may be submitted to the voters at the primary election, May 19.

In a lengthy opinion handed down by Judges Harold G. Knight, William F. Dannehower and E. Arnold Forrest, the Court held that a petition for a referendum filed with the board of elections by proponents of the issue is valid.

Its validity had been challenged by Aloysius Lewa and John J. Sim, licensees in the township. They had the backing of the Retail Liquor Dealers association of Montgomery county.

The petition originally contained 632 names, almost 200 more than were necessary to make it valid. The Court ruled out ten as duplications; 139 because of predating; one, not a registered voter; three, deficient description as to occupation; one, not counted because of after-dating.

Because only 455 names were necessary to make the petition valid, the Court upheld its legality since it carries 478 authentic signatures.

• • •

CONCERNING THE question as to the time the petition could be circulated, the Court ruled that under the Liquor code and the Election code, the last day for filing the petition was March 20.

On the question that 20 of the signers were not registered, the Court accepted certificates from the Registration commission that 19 of the 20 challenged were duly registered, and only one name was dropped.

The major question of what constituted legal addresses as placed on the petition by 203 signers challenged by the retail liquor dealers group also was resolved in favor of the signers.

The names had been challenged because they furnished either the name of the town alone, only a street or road and no house number or only a postoffice address, such as an RD number.

The Court ruled the burden of proof rested with the objectors as the names themselves were prima facie valid and that the objectors failed to show that any of the signers were not residents of the township.

Concerning non-residents, two names had been challenged as

144 New Houses Planned in Biggest Local Project Yet

By FRED C. SELBY
(Mercury Staff Writer)

One hundred and forty-four new single homes will be built in the Pottsgrove Manor development north of West King street, which will bring the total built there to 266 — by far the biggest single housing project in Pottstown.

Philip Koury, general sales manager for Pottsgrove Manor, said ground-breaking on the 144 additional homes will be today.

There is, he said, a strong possibility that the homes may be sold under the minimum down payment plan made possible by the recent elimination of Federal controls on the amount of down payment required under Veterans Administration financing.

The additional 144 houses may be able to be financed through the VA for as little as $100 down. The 122 Pottsgrove homes already completed were financed through the VA on the basis of $600 down.

Koury said he expected to receive definite word on this possibility by the end of the week. If such financing can be obtained, he said, it also would apply to the last 13 homes of the original 122. All the rest of the 122 have been sold.

Virtually all the additional 144 homes will be built on Chestnut, Walnut and Beech streets, from the end of the present development eastward to Shoemaker road. No more than three can be put on West King street because of housing already there.

Koury said F. A. Collins, Chester, Delaware county, designer and builder of the homes, has expressed hopes that costs can be held in line, permitting the additional 144 to be sold at the same price as the ones already built.

Tentative price on the new ones, Koury said, is $9700 for all homes except ones on cor-

Fund Drive Planned To Pay Off Mortgage On Memorial Park

A community fund-raising canvass to pay off the mortgage of $8500 on Pottstown Memorial park and to make repairs for the outdoor recreation season will be held May 11.

This was announced yesterday by William F. Lamb Sr., chairman, and Charles L. Rohland, co-chairmen of the annual membership campaign for the non-profit corporation.

The special gifts committee now is soliciting contributions among industries and businesses, Lamb reported. Edward J. Sweeney is captain and Sidney Pollock, co-captain of this committee.

The board of directors will meet tonight with the captains of each ward to organize workers for the May 11 canvass.

TRACING THE HISTORY of the 8-year-old park, Lamb recalled that the past year, "the second baseball diamond was completed and other maintenance costs were paid, yet we reduced the mortgage by $3500, leaving a balance of $8500.

Between the special gifts and the canvass, Lamb said, "we should raise the balance of the mortgage debt and enough extra to make the necessary maintenance repairs for the recreation season to the amount of $10,000."

Lamb envisioned the day when there would be "a large community auditorium" at the Manatawny park, and pointed out that with the relocation westward of Route 100, more people should be brought to the park.

Youth Forum Scheduled At YMCA During May

The first annual forum on youth services that will be aimed at parents of teen-agers in the borough will be held at the YMCA late in May.

The project was brought up at a meeting of the parents advisory committee on teen-age affairs last night at the YMCA.

The forum will take up problems of teen-agers especially peculiar to Pottstown. It will be divided into two sessions—the educational and the religious.

Presiding at the meeting was Mrs. Howard Heath, chairman.

'ARMY' MONEY RAISERS HEAR TALK ON DRIVE

Volunteers Hear Beacraft Discuss Campaign To Raise $7300

More than 120 volunteer workers crowded the Pottstown Salvation Army citadel last night for final instructions on the fund-raising campaign they will conduct this week and next.

After a short program entertainment, the workers heard O. C. Beacraft, chairman of the "Army's" advisory board, discuss the need for $7300 this year to maintain services.

Other speakers were J. Russel Reifsnyder, vice chairman of the advisory board; Captain C. Robert Flinn, commander of the citadel; and Mrs. George Leh, chairman of the "Army" women's auxiliary, who is heading the drive.

Beacraft reported that the board has received $2160 from persons answering letters containing appeals for funds.

• • •

THE BALANCE of the money needed will be solicited by the volunteer workers, who will call personally on Pottstown area residents.

Beacraft said if more than $7300 is realized from the current drive, the balance will be applied on the local organization's mortgage.

Recalling that the United Fund slashed $13,500 from this year's "Army" allocation, Beacraft reminded workers that this was a 60 percent cut.

The Pottstown area has been divided into 16 collection districts with a volunteer captain for each. Workers will make their first returns at the citadel Monday night.

Council Committees To Demand Airport Plans From Basco

The borough will ask John Basco, director of Pottstown Municipal airport, how he plans to make the oft-criticized field a success.

Members of council's finance and airport committees last night asked Borough Manager Horace B. Gulden to set a meeting as soon as practical to discuss airport problems with Basco, who operates the field under the name, Basco Flying service.

The past year the airport director promised airport committee he would develop a plan for hangers and lights at the field after he got certain personal matters corrected.

RUSSIANS SEEN IN NORTH KOREA BY RETURNED GI

Jeep Load of Soviet Troops Attempted to Have Prisoners Shot

SOLDIER TELLS OF DEATH MARCH TO PRISON CAMP

FREEDOM VILLAGE, Korea, TUESDAY, April 21 (AP)—An American soldier returned here from a Communist prison camp today said Russian soldiers tried to get Communist guards drunk at one time so the guards would shoot the American POWs in the camp.

Sgt. Orville Mullins, Covington, Ky., said in an interview the Russian soldiers carried arms and wore uniforms.

Asked how he knew the Russians wanted the guards to shoot the prisoners, Mullins said, "they made motions."

Mullins told a grim tale of a 50-mile death march north from the North Korean capital of Pyongyang in August, 1951. Mullins said that many American and other United Nations soldiers died on the march.

* * *

NORTH OF PYONGYANG, Mullins said, the prisoners passed two jeep-loads of Russian soldiers.

"They stopped us on the road and tried to get our guards drunk so they would shoot us," he said.

Mullins was in an ambulance convoy that brought the second group of exchanged sick and wounded Allied war prisoners in a happy mood from Panmunjom today.

Lt. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, US Eighth army commander, personally greeted almost every Allied soldier. The first to arrive walked haltingly, but they were in high spirits.

The prisoners were among 100 Allied soldiers exchanged for 500 North Korean and Chinese disabled prisoners in the second day of an operation in which 605 UN prisoners are being exchanged for 5800 communists.

Doctors and nurses promptly began examinations of the Allied prisoners.

* * *

THE TENSION and expectancy of yesterday was gone. There was a relaxed feeling everywhere throughout the four long covered processing lines through which the returning prisoners must pass for medical and physical checkup before continuing the long journey home.

A guard at the barbed wire enclosure surrounding Freedom Village summed up the general atmosphere.

"There isn't so much running around today. Today everyone knows what to do and what to expect," said Sgt. Clarence Wholeslangle, Bentleyville.

A bright sun dawned early. The flags of the United Nations, US and British Commonwealth lay calm against their staffs in the still morning air.

This traditionally-styled home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Conrad at 1002 North Evans street (near Grace street) is coming into its own with the approach of warm weather (very slow approach). In addition to the well-landscaped yard and the budding maples out front, there actually are three porches—the open one at left, connecting with the dining room; the sun parlor at right, connecting with the living room and a deck porch over the sun parlor that really can be used. The living room, 15 by 24 feet, has a big stone fireplace. Also downstairs are the kitchen, small laundry room and lavatory. On the second floor are three bedrooms and bath; on the third are two bedrooms and a big cedar closet. There's a two-car garage at left rear. Conrad had a fruit and produce business on Johnson street for 12 years. He now is employed by Peoples market. The house was built in 1926 by Walter Wolf, Ringing Rocks.

Interned Civilians Arrive in Moscow On Last Leg of Journey to Freedom

MOSCOW, April 20 (AP)— Six British civilians and an Irish priest arrived here today after long internment in North Korea. They reported that three Americans held with them during part of their two years and eight months imprisonment had died of illness.

A spokesman for the group said seven other Americans held with them in a farmhouse outside the North Korean capital of Pyongyang still were alive and in apparent good health when they left there nearly a month ago.

The American embassy has been informed that, though Soviet good offices granted recently by Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov in response to a US request, seven Americans soon would be on their way to Moscow on the first leg of their trip home.

Sun tanned, smiling and in apparent good health, the Britons and the Irish priest ended a long trek across Siberia with a warm greeting at Moscow's Yaroslavsky station by Britain's Ambassador Sir Alvary Gascoigne.

* * *

THEY ARE scheduled to fly to England tomorrow in a special RAF transport plane.

The three Americans reported by the Britons to have died in North Korea were Bishop Patrick J. Byrne, Washington, D. C.; Walter S. Eltringham of Ashland, a US Bureau of Mines official; William Holdock Evans, a mining engineer born in Japan. Eltringham's wife now lives in Wilkes-Barre.

(This was the first report that the two mining men were not living, but the Maryknoll mission at Ossining, N. Y., said in October it presumed Bishop Byrne was dead.)

The seven Americans still reported alive were: Father William Booth, New York born Maryknoll missionary; Louis Leo Dans of Chicago, former US State department employe; and five Methodist missionaries, Nellie Dyer, Van Buren, Ark.; Anders C. Jeasen, born in Denmark; Mary Helen Rosser, Macon, Ga.; Bertha A. Smith, Marshall, Mo., and Lawrence A. Zellars, Weatherford, Tex.

Britain Asks Formosa To Act in Burma War

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., April 20 (AP) — Britain urged Nationalist China today to broadcast an appeal to 12,000 Chinese guerrillas now fighting in Burma to lay down their arms and accept internment.

Sir Gladwyn Jebb, British chief delegate said in the UN assembly's political committee that if Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek has no physical control from Formosa over the guerrillas under Gen. Li Mi, his Government at least could make a broadcast appeal.

He said the soldiers should be interned or evacuated.

RED SATIRIST DIES

MOSCOW, April 20 (AP)—The Moscow press reported today the death of Vladimir Khenkin, one of the leading actors in the Soviet Union in roles of satire and comedy.

US REDS GET ORDERS TO REGISTER

WASHINGTON, April 20 (AP) — The US Communist party was ordered today to register as a tool of Moscow, list its members and give a financial accounting. But the party doesn't have to do anything about it just yet.

The registration order from the Subversive Activities Control board, which called the party "a subsidiary and puppet of the Soviet Union since its inception in 1919," opened the way for a long, drawnout court battle.

Party lawyers, who had declared in advance they would fight the ruling, said today they will ask the US Court of Appeals here — and the Supreme court, if necessary — to reverse the board's decision "as an unconstitutional monstrosity." The lawyers said they would ask the court to strike down the McCarran act on which the ruling was based.

Until the courts decide, enforcement of the registration order is stayed. It may be a year or more before the case makes its way through the two courts. The party has 60 days in which to file an appeal.

* * *

IN NEW YORK, the Communist Party National committee said "our party will, of course, not register and our appeal stays the decision." The statement, issued over the signatures of William Z. Foster, national chairman, and national committeemen Elizabeth Gurley Flynn and Pettis Perry, continued:

"The Communist party rejects with contempt the allegation that its members are foreign agents. The 15,000 American Communists who served in our armed forces against the Axis Powers stand as proof positive of our profound patriotism, as does the entire activity of the Communist party throughout its history."

AMMO PROBERS HINT SHAKEUP OF TOP BRASS

Senator Says MacArthur May Be Called on To Testify

WASHINGTON, April 20 (AP)—The chairman of the Senate committee investigating ammunition shortages in Korea hinted today that Congress may demand a shakeup in the organization of the Pentagon.

Sen. Margaret Chase Smith (R-Me) gave this indication to reporters after her Armed Services subcommittee called a temporary halt to its ammunition inquiry.

She said, too, that Gen. Douglas MacArthur may be called as a witness later to fill in gaps in the testimony already heard by the senators.

The final witness in the current phase of the inquiry was Gen. J. Lawton Collins, the Army's chief of staff, who said in answer to question from Mrs. Smith that the Army never was told not to win the Korean war.

* * *

GEN. JAMES VAN FLEET had told the subcommittee earlier that there were serious ammunition shortages during the 22 months he commanded the Eighth army in Korea. He called the engagement "a sitdown war."

Mrs. Smith said she hopes the testimony heard by the subcommittee will serve as a guide to changing the military organization and Pentagon management to avoid any future situation such as the ammunition shortage.

Sen. Byrd (D-Va), a subcommittee member, predicted the hearing will lead to some sort of reorganization of the Pentagon's management methods.

Mrs. Smith indicated that any further testimony will be aimed at fixing responsibility for the policies which shaped this nation's military operations in Korea.

New Treasury Secretary Rules Out Depression Possibility in Peacetime

NEW YORK, April 20 (AP) — Treasury Secretary George M. Humphrey said today there will be no depression in America, come a Korean armistice or even full world peace.

"There is no reason to fear peace," Humphrey declared. "We are not headed for a depression."

"Adjustments, yes, but not depression," he added in his maiden speech as the fiscal weathervane of President Eisenhower's new Republican Cabinet.

The former Midwest iron ore magnate told the annual luncheon of the Associated Press at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel:

* * *

"SO LONG as we maintain the soundness of our money; attain that nice balance between achieving security from aggression and maintaining economic strength; eliminate waste and handle our fiscal affairs with wisdom, America can look forward to good jobs at good pay and real advances in our scale of living.

State Senate Hears Proposal to Iron Out Sales Tax Program

HARRISBURG, April 20 (AP)—A proposal was made in the Senate tonight for six Republican and Democratic leaders of the General Assembly to work out a tax program "upon which all can agree."

But Sen. John H. Dent, the Democratic floor leader, immediately rejected the idea, saying he would take part in "no closed chamber agreements."

The idea of a special bi-partisan committee to develop a tax program was advanced by Sen. George N. Wade (R-Cumberland) in a speech on the Senate floor as the House marked time on its proposed sales tax.

He said that the House, with its pending sales tax, "has reached a state of deadlock so far as a tax program is concerned" but that the six leaders of the two branches "hold the fate of Pennsylvania in their hands."

Wade named as members on the committee he suggested, in addition to Dent, Sen. M. Harvey Taylor, Sen. Rowland B. Mahany.

Scout Leader to Be Invested at Cabin He Helped Troop Build 26 Years Ago

A log cabin he helped to build 26 years ago will be the scene tonight of a Sanatoga man's investiture as scoutmaster of the troop in which he was then a Tenderfoot

Milton D Detwiler assistant scoutmaster of Searles Memorial troop 7, will receive his new rank at a formal campfire ceremony just outside the troop's cabin

The rustic structure, which is built of logs two feet thick, took the new leader and his fellow scouts of the late 1920's almost ten years to build

Detwiler is now the only member of the old troop who is still active in scouting

* * *

HE SAID last night that the story and a half cabin which stands on the property of Arthur Lloyd near Harmonyville road in North Coventry township holds many memories for him

We used to trim the logs out by hand when we were building it he recalled

"Some of them were 30 feet long, and we hauled them to the building site on a single axle between two cartwheels."

He added that mortising where the logs were joined at the corners was done by the 'old' scouts with hand axes

* * *

THE CABIN on woodsy cried Chestnut hill has belonged to the Searles church troop continuously since it was built although the troop has been reorganized several times as 'old' Scouts grew up and were replaced by young boys

Detwiler has a total of 30 years experience in scouting including one year as assistant scoutmaster of Troop 7 All of his experience has been with the Searles troop

He also is prepared by training for his new duties having taken the course for scoutmaster at the six weeks University of Scouting held at the local High school recently

The new scoutmaster will replace Raymond Shichter Jr who resigned because of the pressure of the other duties

* * *

ALSO TO be invested at the Searles campfire tonight are two assistant scoutmasters They are Roy Stillings and Ronald Egolf

Luther Ellis chairman of the troop committee will confer the emblems of leadership on the three men

The Searles troop plans to put the old cabin in shape for other meetings during the Spring and Summer Detwiler said

Other troops will be out-of doors too this week

Troops 12 and 15 will push out on hikes to Palladino's Grove and Sprogel's run on Saturday

Town Employment Takes Sharp Rise

Pottstown's employment curve climbed sharply in March

Orders for workers at the State Employment service 364 King street reached their highest figure since Aug 1950

Most orders were in the semi skilled and unskilled occupations but demands continued in the skilled and clerical groups

The number of persons actively seeking employment through the King street office decreased from 617 in February to 563 in March and consists of 231 males (38 veterans) and 332 females

* * *

THE DECLINE affected only the group under 45 years indicating that more older workers continue to enter the labor forces It is encouraging to note that 35 persons over 45 were placed by the local office during March employment officials said

Area employers predict the production surge will continue for another two months

Apparel, construction and primary metals industries reported employment improvement during the month Apparel increased the most — 16 percent

Initial applications for unemployment insurance declined from 342 in February to 308 in March Partial benefit claims are decreasing

Mother and Daughter Treated for Bruises After 2-Car Crash

A Pottstown mother and her daughter were treated in Pottstown hospital dispensary late yesterday morning after a two car collision on King street between Charlotte and Evans streets

Mrs William J Souders 913 North Hills boulevard and Mary Souders 10 were discharged after examination

Mrs Souders suffered a bruised left knee and her daughter suffered a bruise of the forehead when their car collided with an auto driven by Jean F Sammet New York City

The Pottstown woman told Motor Patrolman Earl J Rhoads she was heading west on King street about 15 miles per hour when the Sammet vehicle pulled suddenly out of a parking space in front of her

* * *

SHE SAID she could not avoid the collision

Rhoads took the Souders to the hospital

The right front fender and headlight of the Souders car were damaged The left front fender of the Sammet car was damaged

The accident took place at 10:50 o clock

It is estimated that the nylon in a $1.50 pair of nylon stockings is worth about 10 cents.

A Mighty Good Suggestion

BOROUGH Manager Horace B. Gulden has made a worthwhile suggestion to help keep Pottstown clean. Anybody who has an idea how to keep the dust and dirt and chewing gum wrappers and peanut shells from blowing into citizens' eyes certainly should be heard.

Mr. Gulden suggests that the borough purchase a street sweeper at a cost of $12,000. This sweeper would clean 20 miles of borough streets every week at what it's costing Pottstown to sweep High street once a week!

Right now the borough spends between $7000 and $8000 to sweep High street (and not all of that) and a part of Hanover street ONCE A WEEK! The job is done by four road workers who tediously sweep the main stem by hand, then toss it into a borough truck, driven by a fifth worker. This is done only on Saturdays so the shopping center might have a clean face for the weekend.

The street cleaning department doesn't get much help from the High street merchants, for they merely sweep the pavement dirt into the gutters, only to have it blown back on the pavements to start the whole procedure over again.

Mr. Gulden suggests there may be a law against this sweeping of filth into the streets. THERE IS! The Mercury campaigned years ago to stop the filthy habit. Police warned some sweepers, but they didn't follow up the warning. Take a look any morning and you'll see the men who profit most from the street cleaning piling up the filth in the gutters.

Be that as it may, Mr. Gulden says he will sweep 20 miles of borough streets a week if a sweeper is provided. There should be no question about buying a sweeper. Let's do it right away, if only to get rid of the horse and buggy methods of sweeping our streets!

Purchase of a sweeper ought to perform one more good deed. It might convince borough officials that there's no sense in sprinkling the streets with spalls every time a street is oiled. The spalls are washed into the gutters, then swept up and carried away. Let's stop this spall spreading, too, and build some permanent streets!

More Beef for the Dollar

A short time ago, the American Meat Institute made a cross country spot check of retail beef prices. It found that some cuts were selling at the lowest prices in four years. It also found that in many places steaks were being offered at prices close to, or even less than, the price reached by hamburger at last year's peak.

In the light of these facts it is not surprising to learn that consumers have been eating much more beef than was the case a few months ago. And we need have no fears as to the adequacy of supply—the cattle population on the nation's farms and ranches is at a record high, according to Department of Agriculture reports, and it is expected that the 1953 slaughter will be considerably greater than that of 1952.

The recent gyrations in the cattle markets have provided an excellent illustration of how the law of supply and demand works. It is an axiom that when any commodity is in heavy supply, the price tends to go down—and that when any commodity is in short supply, the price tends to go up. Due to a combination of factors, late beef marketings have been heavy and the price levels have reflected that fact.

This is a boon to the consumer, who gets more beef for his dollar. From the producer's standpoint, the price drops have been sharp. But those who know the complicated meat business best think that these adjustments, painful as they are, may lead to a healthier situation all around. In any event, it is to the credit of the cattlemen that there has been no general cry for subsidies or other governmental aid.

Menace, and Problem

PRESIDENT Eisenhower says he will welcome any recommendation for defense economies which will not hurt our battle-front strength.

The President sees the nation menaced on the one hand by Communist aggression, and on the other hand by the dangers of deficit spending and inflation. His problem is: How much can the huge defense budget be cut without laying the country open to military defeat?

Suggested cuts in defense spending for the next fiscal year range from $7,000,000,000 to $5,000,000,000. These suggestions are based on examples of waste and extravagance uncovered by Congressional inquiries.

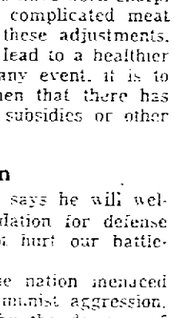

The taxpayer can't know just where cuts should be made. He does know there is plenty of room for economies, and in those economies are his only hope for tax relief.

PUNKIN CORNERS, April 20.

Editor, The Mercury,
Dear Sir 'n' Brother:

Wal, I see by The Mercury where President Eisenhower challenged the Russians to prove their peace overtures stop Red aggression in Asia and give independence to their European sattelites. That's a program that should keep the Moscow boys out of mischief for a while.

Ike made his address to a group of newspaper editors but I know who he really was talking to.

Dogs More Sensible Than People

Dogs Brainier Than Men

To the Editor: I have written in to your paper many times and this time I just had to voice my opinion.

Thank goodness there are at least some human beings in the world!

Letters like Admirer of Justice ("Defends the Dog," Readers Say, April 17) and Golden Rule ("Just Can't Stand Meanness," Readers Say, April 17) deserve a lot of recognition! They sound like people who think of other things in life besides themselves.

If people aren't griping about baby coaches, they're griping about poor animals. If all the animals in town were done away with, they'd gripe about something else.

And let me say this that the poor dumb animal has far more sense with the little brains he is supposed to have than a lot of you darn people have in your thick heads!

No, I don't sit for hours at a time with a cat or dog curled up in my lap, but I do love animals.

How many people are satisfied with a warm place to sleep, a pan of water and food and a pat on the head once in awhile? (It takes so little to be kind to animals.

No, humans are never satisfied, they're habitually griping about one thing or another. A brief look at the Readers Say column will verify my point.

If people don't want animals, why don't they dispose of them in a humane way?

Just call the SPCA and they'll gladly pick them up and will appreciate what ever amount of change you give them.

Pottstown RD 1 — 21 YEAR OLD MOTHER

Barking Dogs

To the Editor: People who advocate dogs restrained should remember they are bucking for another nuisance.

Dogs that are confined are discontented and do a lot more barking, which is extremely annoying to other people.

It also makes dogs cross to restrain them.

Pottstown — UNA CANUS

Children, Not Dogs

To the Editor: It doesn't make sense to me that children break your bushes, tramp on your tulips, open your gates when your yard is fenced and if they feel like it, they will pick flowers you have paid good money for. I have yet to see a child punished for this.

Nowadays children do not seem to be taught to stay off or respect other people's property. It's not the dogs that have hurt our property.

Pottstown — HOME LOVER

Where Does Tax Money Go?

To the Editor: Hoping not to seem too naive or impertinent, may I please ask just how the Pottstown taxes will be used or have been used in past years?

Being a newcomer to Pottstown, I find it impossible to see where the taxes are being spent.

First of all, the streets are in deplorable condition. I've had the jolts of my life in the few months of my residence in this fair site. Never have I seen streets so "pocked" with small craters.

Secondly, the fire companies lack sufficient funds for operation. Yet it is almost every day that one or the other of the engines answer disaster calls.

Then the water runs black and is terrible to the taste.

The school teachers are finding it very rough sledding to get increases and the police force has originated claims of underpayment.

Having lived and visited in the majority of these 48 states, never have I come up against so much tax.

In the last city where I was fortunate enough to live, the taxes were much less, yet everything was run smoothly.

That same city, being in Pennsylvania, and the taxes so much less, makes me wonder what it is in Pottstown that people are willing to pay so much for.

I'm not trying to get out of paying my share of the taxes, but having lived here less than six months, standing the chance of not being here a year, having no children and a normal curiosity, great appreciation would be felt if someone would kindly tell me where the per capita tax, or school tax, school occupation tax which I've never encountered before and borough occupation tax which is also a new one to me, will be applied.

Pottstown — TIMID SOUL

Clean-Up in Name Only

To the Editor: West Pottsgrove has a good idea in waging a clean-up drive. Every community should have one.

There are plenty of eyesores in the borough which should be gotten rid of, also.

The week sponsored by the Jaycees the past year did not seem to accomplish much.

What is needed is a drive initiated by borough council with the threat of a fine if things are not up to par.

Pottstown — NEAT

No Kick for GIs

To the Editor: I hear the latest brainstorm of the WCTU is to send the boys in Korea fruit juice.

I don't think the boys over there will like it very much unless it is fermented.

Pottstown — YEAST CAKE

Eisenhower Selections: Experienced Specialists

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, April 20—Two recent Eisenhower appointments emphasize, in dramatic manner, his determination to follow a middle-of-the-road approach to controversial problems involving Party politics, personalities and Federal regulation of private business and industry. With respect to the Taft and Dewey factions, as well as opposing advocates of big and little government, it was a "plague on both your houses" decision.

As he has done so many times in the past, the President revealed his preference for the states' rights viewpoint as against the Truman philosophy of bureaucratic rule and domination.

He also continued his policy of selecting experienced specialists rather than professors or politicians. Finally, he indicated that, despite a willingness to compromise, he likes to stand a bit to the right of center.

* * *

KUYKENDALL'S BACKGROUND: The appointments involved selection of men to such key regulatory agencies as the Federal Power and the Federal Communications commissions. It is generally recognized that the personnel and philosophy of the members of these organizations will determine future Administration policies quite as effectively as legislation enacted on Capitol Hill.

Ike's unexpected choice of Jerome K. Kuykendall of Olympia, Washington, for the Federal Power spot is the more sensational demonstration of the White House attitude and strategy. Kuykendall had never been mentioned for the post until he was named. Here is the background:

The opposing candidates for FPC had been Jeff Robertson, a member of the Kansas Corporations commission, and Willard W. Gatchell of New York, now counsel to the FPC.

Robertson had the backing of Senator Carlson of Kansas, an original Ike rooter, and of C. Wesley Roberts, former Republican National chairman. Gatchell was sponsored by Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York. An outside entry was John C. Doerfer of Wisconsin, a member of the Wisconsin Public Utilities commission.

Eisenhower's first problem was political. The Roberts scandal, which forced his resignation as National chairman, made it embarrassing to honor his protege, Robertson.

Moreover, the latter's conservative views on Federal regulation of gas rates and his opposition to the St. Lawrence seaway and power development antagonized the Albany dynasty.

* * *

CRITICISM OF PARTY: But Dewey's supposed influence at Washington has provoked sharp criticism within the Party, especially among the Taft-Carlson Midwest wing. They agreed to but did not cheer Ike's selection of former Rep. Leonard W. Hall of New York as Roberts' successor, figuring him to be a Dewey man, albeit erroneously.

So, rejecting both Robertson and Gatchell, Eisenhower picked a man from the power-and gas-conscious Northwest, presumably on the advice of Interior Secretary McKay. As former Governor of Oregon, he knew of Kuykendall's work on the Washington Public Service commission. Doerfer was named to the FPC.

Ike also showed a neutral spirit with respect to the economic and regulatory aspects of the controversy.

SULTRY SCREEN newcomer Elaine Stewart has a top-ranking movie executive all set to divorce his wife if she'll agree to marry him. The biggie has had a great deal to do with masterminding Elaine's meteoric career.

Joan Bennett

If Walter Wanger can clear film commitments, he'll accompany Joan Bennett to Europe this Summer on a "second honeymoon" . . . Joe DiMaggio is thinking seriously of opening a chain of baseball schools throughout the South and in California. His brothers might collaborate on the venture.

Jane Powell's reconciliation with Geary Steffan isn't working out. Friends fear they'll write the unhappy ending as soon as she returns from her personal appearance tour.

Congress is serious about pushing through a gimmick to nullify the 18-month abroad "tax dodge" that so many Hollywood stars expected would give them financial security for life. The lawmakers think they'll be able to make the new rule retroactive to 18 months prior to the date of passage.

LOUIS ARMSTRONG'S "smutty jokes" and appalling language (unprintable here or anywhere else) at the concert with Benny Goodman shocked the packed Carnegie Hall audience into chilled silence. You wouldn't believe it unless you heard it . . . Peter Lawford is the latest swain of Susan Zanuck, Darryl's daughter.

Flicker producer Sam Zimbalist, who almost made it to the altar with socialite Mimi Taylor, has switched to an ex-Miss America in London . . . Is Frank Dailey's famous Meadowbrook ballroom up for sale? The boys around Tin Pan Alley hear he turned down $100,000 recently, but would sell if the offer went high enough.

Alben Barkley, the ex-Veep, has patched up his difference with Happy Chandler. They're pals again.

BEN HECHT'S oldest daughter, Teddy Jackson, will drop her plans to sue Helmut Dantine over a set of suits he was supposed to have delivered to her in Sao Paulo. She's still mad over incident, but feels the Jenny crisis has given the family enough publicity for one season.

Before leaving for his Hawaiian vacation, former President Truman confided to intimates that he won't wait until 1956 to campaign—he'll take an active part in the off-year Congressional elections.

A top bop pianist doesn't dig those Internal Revenue cats. The squares just grabbed him for a bundle on his 1951 and 1952 tax returns.

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

ARNOLD B., is a brilliant engineer who now is operator of his own factory.

"I feel I deserve an increase in salary," one of his young engineers protested to Arnold.

"Why do you always send Harry out on installation jobs? I could do them just as well."

"Can you speak Spanish?" Arnold curtly inquired, and the young engineer had to acknowledge that he couldn't.

"Well, Harry can," Arnold continued. "You ought to be able to look ahead and anticipate such extra functions in addition to sheer engineering ability.

"You know most of our installations are in Mexico and South America. So why haven't you shown some resourcefulness and prepared yourself for these additional demands? You could at least have learned Spanish.

* * *

"I'LL ADMIT THAT you may do just as good work as Harry, at least here at your bench or desk. But Harry can top you in those additional abilities that we need in the field.

"Besides, we can hire men right out of college to do your desk work. You are simply a trained technician. We have ten like you in this very office. But only one of them speaks Spanish and that is Harry, so naturally we give him the big jobs.

"The trouble with you young engineers is the fact that you think your technical training is all that is required for success in life.

* * *

"YOU ENGINEERS do the routine work. You do have valuable ability, I admit, but we can hire substitutes for any of you at the same or lower salaries, because you fail to develop those collateral abilities which will make you essential members of the firm.

"The officers of this company, who are non-engineers, get the big salaries. Do you know why this is true?

"Because the administrative jobs go to men who know how to handle people and bring in the orders!

"You will find that it isn't enough just to have brains, or even college trained brains, but you must understand people and cultivate additional assets so that you are an indispensable man.

"So become more versatile. That's what makes men indispensable, and raises their salaries."

LIFE LINE

Hollywood

By EDITH GWYNN

HOLLYWOOD, April 20—Over a year ago we had our typewriter spanked for telling about the talks going on between the brothers Warner and the brass of RCA and NBC — pertaining to the complete take-over of the Warner studios by the big radio and television interests. Must repeat now what we said then, for again confabs between above-mentioned moguls are taking place — in the east. And there is a strong possibility that RCA-NBC will not only buy a tremendous backlog of Warner pictures for TViewing, but will also acquire the Warner studio in which to make films for video exclusively. Shirley Booth leaves her Broadway show, "Time of the Cuckoo" next month to do another Hal Wallis Flicker in Filmville. It's "About Mrs. Leslie"—to start in July . . . Johnny Meyer, with Paul Getty in soon to coin another mint from a new Egyptian oil deal. Understand Howard Hughes participates too.

Metro is testing Metopera star, Cesar Sieppe—who just might get the first while Mario Lanza role in "Student Prince." If so, it will do Vic Damone out of that job (co-starring with Jane Powell)—and he's dying to do it! Meantime, Vic opens his night-club act in N.Y.'s Riviera club, May 19—and Janie Powell does a singing tour of her own. Everyone's wondering whether this tour of Janie's will spell finis to her marriage, and hoping it won't! Keenan Wynn had to bow out of "Rope's End" because of his auto-crash injuries, but he'll be well enough to rehearse for "Kiss Me Kate" next week. She was born there and lived there until 1911. She recalled the family next door at 338 Cherry street. The youngest daughter of that family, who was to become Mrs. Lewis F. Unruh, 358 North Charlotte street, was named Emily after the present Mrs. Bauer. "How I would love to come home again!" Mrs. Bauer wrote. "Folks say I will some time, but I have my doubts . . . # YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

ONE OF THE most frequent medical emergencies a doctor is called on to treat is a severe nosebleed.

Many haphazard measures are used in treating this emergency. Some place metal at the back of the neck or paper under the lip, while others place ice on the back of the neck.

Eighty percent of all the cases can be expected to stop bleeding by themselves. However, a physician uses more scientific methods.

While a nosebleed is usually not serious, especially in children and young adults, the prolonged bleeding may become quite serious. Deaths have been reported from neglected severe nosebleeds.

Now as to the cause. Sometimes it is thought that nosebleeds are due to deficiencies in the clotting mechanism of the blood. This is rarely the case.

Most often it is due to a breaking of a blood vessel within the nose.

Most nosebleeds are controllable by simple pressure. A person can usually stop his nosebleed if it is not severe by leaning forward and pinching the end of his nose for ten to 15 minutes.

Most nosebleeds will stop in this way. Very severe nosebleeds will not stop in this manner, however, and this is where the doctor comes into the picture.

In those with constant nosebleeds, it has been found that a deficiency in vitamin C or ascorbic acid may be at fault.

Certain diseases, such as whooping cough, tuberculosis, scarlet fever, rheumatic fever, high blood pressure and severe liver disorders may have nosebleeds as their first sign of the disease.

In the severe nosebleed that is very difficult to stop, a physician often has to be called. The physician will try packing the nose in order to stop the bleeding.

Usually, very severe nosebleeds are stopped in this manner. If the bleeding does not stop with this method, surgery may have to be resorted to and the blood vessel supplying the nose tied off in order to stop the bleeding.

However, it is well to remember that in all cases of nosebleeds, the cause should be found.

SECOND ALLIED GROUP CROSSES FREEDOM LINE

Sick and Wounded Prisoners Show High - Spirits At Truce Site

RETURNEES LAUGH, JOKE WHILE WAITING CHECKUP

PANMUNJOM, Tuesday, April 21 (AP) — Happy and wise-cracking, the second 100 sick and wounded Allied war prisoners crossed their merciful milestone of freedom today in exchange for 500 sullen and dishevelled disabled Communists

The Allied soldiers were jubilant in sharp contrast to the solemn Allies who came down freedom road in the first exchange yesterday

Sixteen Americans, 12 Britons and three Turks were among the first of two groups to be taken today to Freedom Village from this Korean neutral zone, where full scale armistice talks resume on Saturday.

In the second group were 19 Americans The balance were South Koreans

* * *

THE AMERICANS and British waved, smiled and joked as they entered United Nations reception tents for preliminary medical check ups It was a high spirited entry compared with the silent solemnity of those who returned to freedom yesterday

One of the returned prisoners stepped out of the reception tent looked up and saw the big red and gold sign arching above him which said

'Welcome — Gate to freedom"

He grinned broadly and said something to one of the soldiers assisting the prisoners. The soldier slapped him on the back and said

It's good to have you back"

Not to be outdone, the Communists today belated erected their own sign — five feet higher than the Allied sign Painted red it bore Chinese and Korean characters saying

* * *

"LONG LIVE THE Chinese People's republic Long live the people's republic of Korea Return to the arms of your fatherland"

The exchange will be continued daily until completed

The UN command said it would deliver 350 North Koreans and 150 Chinese tomorrow

The Allied prisoners arriving today were excited

They called out and joked with newsmen and correspondents who occupied a wooden stand nearby

* * *

PFC PAUL O BLANTON of Brodhead Ky, member of the 25th division when he was captured, was the first American to leave the ambulances today He was followed by Pvt John M Jankovits Jr, Philadelphia

One American soldier called out from inside an ambulance

'Hubba Hubba!"

Pvt. George Chambers of Newcastle, England, a member of the famed Gloucester Regiment, turned thumbs up and shouted

"Any Limeys out there?"

Asked by a correspondent later how he felt Chambers said happily "Smashing!"

* * *

THE TURKISH SOLDIERS saluted smartly as they were assisted from an ambulance

The first convoy of ambulances reached Freedom Village at 10 23 a m (8 23 p m, Monday, Potts town time) It was greeted by Lt Gen William Harrison chief allied armistice negotiator

Farther south, the first plane bearing yesterday's returned Allied prisoners left the Republic capital of Seoul for Tokyo on the first leg of the long and joyous journey home.

The hour of exchange for today's repatriates was the same as Monday—9 a m at this dusty neutral zone—a tiny patch of peace between two warring armies being of persons who had allegedly moved to Florida The Court ruled no evidence was given concerning whether they had moved and intended to leave the county permanently

* * *

ON THE QUESTION of the listing of occupations by the signers, the court ruled that general listings such as 'factory' 'newspaper,' 'antiques' 'home maker" 'at home" 'dealer' 'paints etc" and 'operators,' were sufficient

Only one occupation, given as "FEAH" was thrown out as being too vague and indefinite although the judges surmised that it referred to Valley Forge Army Hospital

'The occupation of a signer of a petition such as this has no relation to the right of a signer to sign the petition" commented the court "The requirement that the occupation be stated is inserted in the law as an additional means of identification and considered in that light We are of the opinion that 16 of the 17 objections to signers as giving 'illegal occupations are without merit"

The challenge to a petition containing 21 names and circulated by H John Black on the basis that he lived in Collegeville and not in the township also was set aside

Concerning Black's residence the court balanced the averment that he paid a per capita tax in 1952 to Collegeville, against his registration as a voter in the township and an affidavit he swore that he lived in the township and ruled "it will take more evidence than the payment of a per capita tax to satisfy us that he does not live in the township"

The Court also ruled on its refusal to accept 35 affidavits made by persons who signed the local option petition and who then sought to withdraw their signatures on the basis there had been misrepresentation

The arrests took place some weeks ago It was understood the ring had attempted to gather information about American troop strength and disposition in Austria

An Army announcement said four of the group have 'confessed' to gathering military information in Vienna Linz and Wels and having turned their information over to the leader of a Czech espionage ring operating out of the Russian zone town of Urfahr

* * *

THESE FOUR persons will be tried by a US Civil court within a few weeks The announcement added these details

Gulden said Basco wants to install lights at the airport for the approximate cost of $650"

Kohler demanded, What will the lights do?"

Gulden said "I guess he wants them for night flying"

School Head Orders Teacher Reinstated

HARRISBURG, April 20 (AP)—Dr Francis B Haas, superintendent of public instruction, today ordered the Scranton school board to reverse a previous decision and reinstate Joseph J Mankel as a teacher

Haas overruled the school board on procedural grounds

The superintendent said the board has shown a "rather liberal attitude" in handling Mankel's case. But, he added, the record did not show that the board received testimony of witnesses under oath nor whether the vote on the question of dismissal of Mankel was taken by roll call.

Also, said Haas, Mankel was given notice that he was dismissed prior to the time the hearing was held.

Puts a Good Mark on a Man!

Regardless of where he drives, no man is wholly a stranger to the people about him—if he sits at the wheel of a 1953 Cadillac

His name may be unknown—and also his occupation—and, likewise, the whereabouts of his home.

But he is not without standing For his Cadillac marks him as a man of character and substance.

Wherever he may be, let him arrive at the door of a distinguished hotel or restaurant—or let him seek the ear of anyone for direction or information . . . and he has the courtesy that goes with respect.

And let it be said for Cadillac owners that, almost invariably, they respond in kind.

Indeed, the honor which Cadillac does to its owners is the fruit of the honor they have so long bestowed upon Cadillac. When so many wonderful people favor a particular make of car over such a long period of time—the car must inevitably become a mark of distinction.

All of this, of course, comes to the owner of a 1953 Cadillac as an extra joy and satisfaction.

It comes in addition to the magnificent performance of Cadillac's 210 h p. engine and improved Hydra Matic Drive . . . the wonderful comfort of Cadillac's new Air Conditioner* . . . the car's soft, easy, relaxing ride . . . its marvelous balance and handling ease its long life and dependability . . . and its truly amazing economy of upkeep and operation.

Put them all together and they spell the grandest satisfaction in all the world of motoring.

Have you seen and driven the 1953 version of the "Car of Cars"?

If not—we should be happy to see you at any time. Why not come in today? *Optional at extra cost

A Quick Look at Your Neighbor

By NORMAND PORIER and CHARLES MEARN

"THERE WAS A time when I could make this shot nine out of ten times," Pop Nichols said, as he leaned over the pool table.

He missed the shot then shook his head, smiling. "Not what I used to be," he concluded.

When I. G. Nichols was a young man he excelled in a variety of sports — football, baseball, cricket, track, ice skating.

Irwin G. Nichols

He was born in Phoenixville, son of the late Harry G. and Ella H. Nichols. He was born in 1882, which makes him 71.

He lived in Phoenixville until he was 13 years old then moved to Philadelphia with his parents.

He started work at the age of 14, his first jobs being in department stores and men's furnishings stores.

"You don't want all my jobs, do you? All of them? I've worked at about 75 different occupations in my life. Counted 'em up once —75."

* * *

Pop Nichols' first name is Irwin, but he hates the name. "Can't stand it. Here at the bowling alley they call me Pop. Some people call me 'Goldfish' and others call me 'Sunfish.' Don't know why. But those names are better than Irwin."

He only went through a few of his 75 occupations. From 1900 to 1912 he worked in the steel industry as an inspector for several different companies.

During that time he traveled around from New York to Buffalo, Trenton and Johnstown.

Then in 1912 he came to Pottstown. His parents had come here two years before.

"It was tough then. Couldn't get a job. The depression, you know."

He worked at Flagg's for a time and then at the Glasgow Iron company.

"Then for ten years I sold insurance with three different companies."

From 1925 to 1937 he also owned a farm in Pottstown.

* * *

"A poultry farm. You can't imagine," he said as he took another difficult shot and missed, "how tough it is to be tied down by a property when you can't move it."

"Took a lot out of me that farm did. Never been the same since. Now here's a shot I can make." He made it.

For 20 years until about 1951 he was also an independent salesman. Did direct selling.

"I'm retired now. Modest income. Seven in the side."

"I was in two accidents. That took a lot out of me, too. First one was in 1931. I was unconscious for quite a while. Automobile accident. My back hasn't been right since. I don't think."

* * *

For the past seven years Pop has also been the foul judge nights at the Arrow bowling alleys on High street.

"I get a kick out of it. Don't bowl myself but I like it. I sit up there," he pointed with his cue to a seat overlooking the lanes.

"Here's another shot I used to be able to make," he said. He made it. He smiled a little more confident.

"Fishing's always been my favorite sport. Spent a lot of time at it. No, I don't do much anymore. Bumble around too much now to go fishing."

He indicated a bank shot with his cue and put the ball neatly into the side pocket.

The man known to most local bowlers said he has one sister, Mrs. B. K. Thomas, 810 High street. He lives at that address.

"No, I'm not what I used to be. Getting old, you know."

"Here's a shot I used to make nine out of ten times."

He didn't make the shot and he's not making them nine out of ten times anymore.

But Pop Nichols is still a man to be reckoned with.

He won the game by 15 points.

WHEN YOUR WORK is your hobby there is no better way you can earn your daily bread.

Paul Miller, 211 Berks street, Stowe, has achieved this perfect balance. You can find him almost everyday of the week and many nights at his workshop at the rear of 10 East Vine street.

Paul Miller

He can take an old discarded camera, tinker with it for a few hours and convert it into a precise instrument for taking pictures.

Movie projectors that creak and groan with age are given new life by his magic touch.

Even old cameras with intricate parts that cannot be replaced are rejuvenated. When he cannot get parts for them, he makes them himself.

Miller got started on his camera hospital quite accidentally. As a youth he enjoyed taking still shots in color and black and white.

By the time he was graduated from Pottstown Senior High school in 1932 action movies caught his interest. He began taking movies and his products were shown weekly free of charge to all the residents of Stowe.

One day his movie projector was inoperative. He was told the only way it could be fixed was to send it back to the factory. This would take time, he was told.

The impatient Miller said he would fix it himself. In a matter of a few hours of trial and error, the projector was in ship shape.

The minor job he did on his own camera provided a new interest for the camera fan. The mechanics of taking pictures provided more fascination for him than getting the actual shot himself.

In his spare time while he worked in a Pottstown factory he began fixing box cameras. At the same time he was studying radio repair work.

When he became proficient with the simpler types of cameras he decided to combine his knowledge of radio work and cameras and graduate to the motion picture projection field.

"There wasn't any school I could go to, so I wrote to all the major companies and got information on their cameras," he said. "Even today I get literature on all types of cameras that go on the market."

His self education in his hobby was so successful that he was soon swamped with orders for repairs. In 1944 he quit factory work to devote all his time to camera repairs at his home.

* * *

Four years ago his home did not provide the accomodations necessary to house the many machines needed to synchronize lenses, adjust shutters and other calibrators needed for accurate work plus the large supply of spare parts he kept on hand. So he moved to a workshop.

"The business is fascinating," he said. "Most people would think it was monotonous, but it is far from that. There is always something new I can learn."

The way he works on foreign cameras is proof of that. There are no reference books on the fine cameras, so Miller has to improvise and create his own plans.

"I have one big dream I hope will come true some day," he remarked. "I've got a big plot of land by the Pottstown airport. It's the highest place in Stowe and it looks out all over Pottstown.

"Someday I want to build a two story workshop there, not living quarters, just a workshop. Then when people bring me their cameras, I can try them out right there at all distances and show them how they can get the best results."

In spite of the monopoly his hobby-occupation takes of his time, Miller makes it a point to participate in other things for diversion.

He is Scoutmaster of Stowe Troop 1 of St. Paul's Reformed church, Stowe, and St. Peter's Lutheran church. During the Summer he is program director at the Boy Scouts' Camp Ockanickon, near Doylestown.

Also a major part of his weekly routine is his duty at St. Peter's Lutheran church where he has been Sunday school teacher for boys 9 to 11 years old for the past 16 years.

Our Easter program consisted of the following: the program was opened with a Bible reading by Diane Bachner; the "Legend of the Dogwood" was read by Judith Moser.

Biology Class Studies About Higher Animal

By CAROL MARY BITLER

The Tenth grade biology classes under the supervision of Mr. Alderfer have recently completed a study of the lower animals.

At the present the class is discussing and learning about the most interesting and mysterious of all the animals, the mammals. This is interesting because man falls into this category.

So far the class has listed the characteristics of mammals. Mammals have the highest developed brain system of all the animals. They are generally warmblooded, breathe by lungs and have mammary glands.

The class has for a project individual scrapbooks based on biology subjects.

Man's Foot Fractured

Charles Kirby, 26, Perkiomenville RD 1, was treated for a broken bone in his left foot at Memorial hospital yesterday afternoon.

He stepped on a stone and twisted his ankle. X-rays showed the broken bone.

A cast was applied. He was treated at 4:45 o'clock.

Pupils Are Studying Mellophone, Piano in Fourth Grade Class

We are interested in the progress of some members of our Fourth grade class who are studying instruments. They are Pauline Semet, who is learning to play the mellophone, David Swavely, James Stephens and Robert Brower, the trumpet, Barry Yocum and Wayne Grim, the clarinet.

In our class are several piano players. They are Mary Belle Rosewarne, Charles Dickinson, Marlene Biehl, Peggy Harner, Charles Reinstein, Marilyn Powell, Peggy John, Mary McElroy and Dorothy Davis. The twins in our room, June and Jane Yocum, are baton twirlers.

Mary Belle Rosewarne has brought us daffodils and narcissi which make our room look pretty.

* * *

THE TWINS, June and Jane each brought a bouquet of forsythia which are attractive at the windows.

In geography we are studying the Far North and the Far South. We were surprised to learn that it is colder at the South Pole than it is at the North Pole.

There are several pupils in our room who miss words in the spelling tests. We hope they will work harder and surprise us with a project lesson for the class party soon.

Kenneth Bickel and Wayne Grim each brought a white rabbit to school to show us. Wayne's rabbit has the usual pink eyes, but Kenneth's has blue ones.

Twelfth Graders Discuss Education

By CAROL MARY BITLER

The twelfth grade problems of democracy class, under the supervision of Mr. Alderfer, is discussing, at the present the importance of education, the extent to which people of our country are being educated and the means available for education.

Some of the problems that the class is dealing with are:

1. What is the historical background of education? It was stated that in January, 1611, the first free public school to be maintained by public taxation was established.

2. What were the different kinds of schools when first established in the United States?

* * *

3. WHAT IS EDUCATION?

4. Why is education so important in a democracy?

5. Why does education have a dual nature?

6. What is the make up of an educated person?

7. Is adult education important?

* * *

8. IS FEDERAL AID the answer to the equal education opportunity?

The cardinal points of education being discussed are:

1. Health, the 3 r's, worthy home membership, a vocation, citizenship, leisure time and character.

DIRECTOR A C. SEAWELL reported the new nurses' home and school would be completed by January 1954 Construction on the main hospital will require 18 months from the start of construction. Ground was broken approximately a month ago

Seawell said the hospital expects to accept a class of 25 student nurses and made a plea to residents to house about 15 girls near the hospital.

Because the present dormitory space will be torn up for approximately six months the space will be required Seawell said the hospital is seeking a home in the vicinity to house part of the class

"Otherwise" he explained, "We'll have to cut back on the class and that wouldn't be good with the shortage of nurses"

Seawell reported excavation for the new project is progressing on schedule"

The State has sent an auditor to the scene to keep records and to check on all aspects of the project

Band's Canvassers Net $2195 During House-to-House Tour

The Pottstown band collected $2195.10 in its house to house canvass of the ten wards in the borough last night.

"The total this year was about 25 percent higher than the results of the drive we held last year," Charles J. Simmons, secretary, said after the money was counted.

More than 240 members of the band, their families, and friends conducted a house-to-house canvass that lasted from as early at 5 p. m. to as late as 9:30 p. m.

Besides the more than $2000 picked up last night, the band received another $480 as the result of letters it had sent out to various firms and business people in the borough.

* * *

"THAT MAKES our grand total for the drive $2675.10," Simmons said.

Last year's collections netted the group a total of $2157.76, with only $1639.56 coming from the canvass of borough wards.

The goal of the organization was $3500 but Simmons said that the members were more than satisfied with the amount they picked up.

Emmanuel Church Young Adults to Combine Mystery, Romance With Their Play 'Light of the Moon' to Open Tomorrow Night

Romance and mystery will mingle with comedy in the three act play to be presented by the Young Adult's class of Emmanuel Lutheran church Wednesday and Saturday nights at 8 p. m. in the Sunday school auditorium of the church.

"In the Light of the Moon", by Lindsey Barbee, concerns a young architect and his sister who have inherited a roomy old country home from an uncle, reputed to be a rich recluse.

Finding no money forthcoming, the pair decided to take in summer boarders.

Providing romantic interest are two young couple: mystery surrounds another couple thought to be a bank robber—and his wife, and comedy results from the antics of an old maid tutor and a middle aged male teacher.

Members of the cast include: Joan Ingram, Donald Specht, Zelda Geyer, Richard Raugh, Frances Peiferman, Jean Reigner, Lois Wert, David Detar Jr., Calvin Swavely, Jean Noel, LeRoy Moyer and Lydia Will.

Dress rehearsal last night proceeded without a hitch save for the absence of one of the cast. The absentee character was capably supplied for the evening by the church sexton, Russell Cullum.

Directed by Florence Manthorne, the play is being sponsored by the Adult's class for the benefit of the church building fund.

Upper Perk, Royersford Win

Rothmen Beat Schwenksville; 1-Hitter for Smith

Upper Perkiomen broke a well-pitched game wide open in the sixth inning against Schwenksville yesterday afternoon to win a Perk league decision, 10-0.

Behind the steady one-hit pitching of Bob Smith, Upper Perk added eight runs to its early 2-0 lead with a blistering basehit attack against losing pitcher Charlie Kulp.

The victory placed UP in a tie for second place with Spring City, both having 2-1 records. The loss for the Bluebirds was the second in three league starts.

Kulp, who collected the only hit off Smith, was matching his foe by allowing only one safety during the first five innings. The Perkers had collected a brace of runs in the second frame due to some wildness on Kulp's part and a bit of careless fielding by his mates.

But there was nothing false about the eight runs the winners scored in the sixth inning.

* * *

DENNY ROTH broke Kulp's dream of a victory by blasting a triple to left-center field. Len Miklosovic promptly followed with a single and the rout was on.

Kulp then retired the only batter he was to get out in the sixth, by forcing Walt Schmidt to pop up to third. Bill Glatz, always dangerous with men on base, singled Miklosovic around to third, and Len scored as Mull drove out the fourth safety of the session.

Stan Snyder gave Kulp no letup as he banged a single, scoring Glatz from third. Smith kept the rally alive by walking to load the bases.

John Brunner swung for a long triple over the center fielder's head to clear the sacks, and he romped in on a double to left by Terry Fetterman.

That was all for Kulp and he traded jobs with first baseman Fred Kehs. After getting Roth on a popup, Kehs gave up a single to Miklosovic, his second of the frame, and Fetterman brought home the final run.

* * *

SMITH AVOIDED serious trouble throughout. He allowed four walks but he had the stuff to halt the Birds on every occasion, usually by strikeouts—he had 13.

The first two UP runs were unearned. Roth opened with a walk and stole second and third. Tom Newrock, Schwenksville catcher, threw past third in an attempt to prevent the second stolen base and Roth scored.

Kulp then hit Glatz, walked Mull and hit Snyder. Glatz scored on a pass ball to give up a second run it never actually needed.

POOR CONDITIONS

North Coventry and Boyertown will try again today to get their Perkiomen-Schuylkill league baseball game in on the Wildcats' field. Yesterday's game — the only one postponed out of four P-S tilts — was called off because of poor playing conditions at Norco.

Eagles Top Cols, 4-3; Bill Rogers Great in Relief

Royersford kept playing them close to the vest yesterday, notching a 4-3 victory at home over Collegeville, in the Perkiomen-Schuylkill circuit.

The win—the Eagles', second in four league starts—came in their third one-run game of the year and gave righthander Bill Rogers his first win of the season after two straight setbacks.

Rogers came in one down in the fifth inning and his team in that 4-3 lead. He quieted things down in a hurry and went on to finish out the test in no-hit fashion. Walt Kalil started and gave up four hits, three of them in the Cols' three run fourth that left them one run short with the bases loaded when the side finally was retired.

Bill Korzniak went the route for the Cols, hurling five hit ball, but his own wild pitch and catcher Earl Wagner's passed ball let in what proved to be the deciding runs in the 'Fords second when they bunched the four runs that held up over the distance.

Les Greenawalt doubled to open the Eagle second, Korzniak hit Tom Golie and Jim Heck reached base on McManus' error at third, scoring Greenawalt. Jenson Fray plated Golie with a single, too, and after Kalil fanned, Korzniak wild pitched Heck across. While lead off man Mark Horner was still batting another pitch got by Wagner to allow Fray to count.

* * *

HORNER THEN grounded out and Jack Strunk wrifted to end the frame.

The Cols nearly landed a tie or better in the fourth as an error on Horner, two fielder's choices, Charley Miller's kick at second, run-scoring singles by Carl Weigner and Korzniak and a pass to Jimmie Hales loaded the bases with two out.

Bill Yeagle counted Weigner with a single to make it 4-3 and still leave the sacks bulging, but Wagner lifted to center for the third out, next up.

Korzniak, with two singles, garnered half his team's total off Kalil, while Bob Quinn busted two hits in three trips — one a two-bagger — to nab the best share of the five bingles reaped off Korzniak's servings.

The loss for C-T was its third in four games and the first decision of any kind for Korzniak, who also started in the past week's 8-7 win over Norco, but failed to last.

Spring City Ties for 2d Place in Perky By Defeating West Pottsgrove, 11-3

Spring City's Pirates, who from all appearances must be taking that Captain Kidd stuff pretty seriously, came up with another unexpected show of virility yesterday running through West Pottsgrove, 11-3, at Stowe.

The Pirates, accorded a lower berth in the pre-season rankings, thereby jogged into second place tie with Upper Perkiomen, the team they dumped the past week. Both clubs have 2-1 Perkiomen-Schuylkill league marks and both trail leading Boyertown by a game and a half.

* * *

BILL YEAGLE
. . . Cols' Clubber

The Bear's tiff was postponed yesterday, leaving them still unbeaten in four games.

The Soph whiz of the Spring City mound staff, righthander Ken Finkbinder, was the winner again for the Bucs, duplicating his 2-1 triumph over Upper Perk with a seven hit win.

Finkbinder, who fanned 10 and didn't pass a soul, was never in trouble, shutting the Falcs out for five frames in sending them down to their second straight defeat after an opening day success.

The Buc batsmen, however, had little trouble in figuring out West Pottsgrove starter Dick Geisler, licking him for a couple of first inning hits that flared into five runs with the help of three infield errors in the first frame.

* * *

THREE HITS, three walks and his own misplay ripped Dick for the four more runs in the fourth to chase him and bring on lefthander Al Dori in the next round.

It was the second straight defeat for Geisler, who twirled one frame and lost to Boyertown, 3-2, the past week.

West Pottsgrove shoved over a pair of runs in the sixth as Finkbiner coasted on his 10 run pad, counting on a pass, hits by Leidy Gaugler and Geisler, a fielder's choice, an error and Sam Daub's single.

Ted Fontana's double in the seventh counted another run, scoring Dale Neiman, who had dropped in a one-bagger to open the round.

Centerfielder Bill Boettger led the SC attack with two runs batted in on three hits—all singles—while Fontana's double, single and base on balls was the Falcs' best.

29 ENTER YMCA SWIM

Entries are still open in two events of the first annual Pottstown YMCA swimming championships, Y physical director Len Bernhardt announced last night.

Entries for eight of the 10 events closed the past Saturday, but both the class IV breastroke and Class IV individual medley are still open for entry.

Thus far 29 individuals have enrolled in the meet that will be held Saturday afternoon at the local Y pool. Some 16 local mermen form the basis of the field, with four drawn from Allentown, three from Pottsville, three from Bethlehem, two from Philadelphia and one from Haddonfield, N. J. More entries are in the mail from York.

Charlie Grimm, manager of the Milwaukee Braves, played in two World Series (1929 and 1932) and hit .389 and .333, respectively.

Keizo Yamada Sets Marathon Mark

BOSTON, April 20 (AP)—Japan's Tiny Keizo Yamada, a 25 year old mining engineer who weighs but 108 pounds, ran the fastest marathon ever recorded today with a 2:18:51 performance against a brilliant international field of 158 in the Boston A. A. race.

Yamada, whose first and last names literally mean "respect mountain field" clinched his decisive triumph over his only serious challengers, Findland's Veikko Karvonen and Sweden's Karl Gosta Leandersson, by running their hearts out on killing "Heartbreak Hill." That last of the course's three steep grades is about six miles from the finish line.

Yamada shaved six minutes, 48 seconds off the historic B.A.A. record of 2:25:39 set by Korean Yun Bok Suh in 1947.

One Count, the 1952 three-year-old champion, has a long and bushy foretop. This hairy growth is almost as distinctive as Whirlaway's famed long tail.

Rocky Bridges, Cincinnati infielder recently acquired from the Brooklyn Dodgers, is the shortest player on the Redleg squad. He is five feet eight inches tall.

Club Wants Games

The Royersford AA baseball team is interested in playing teams in the Pottstown area either home or away in twilight games during the week or Sunday afternoon games on the road, after April 26. Persons interested should call manager Ron Nettles at Royersford 1104 or write to him at 617 Walnut street, Royersford.

Cold Weather Moves Trojans-Dragons Game to Today

Mother Nature is anti-baseball this Spring and she blew a cold breath in Pottstown High's direction yesterday after using wetter methods to prevent games the past week.

The Trojans had planned to journey east to Bridgeport for a Ches-Mont league game but Coach Ed Good and the Dragon mentor decided the temperature was just too low.

The two clubs will try again today and the "not quite so cold" forecast may indicate a game will be played. The postponement further complicated the Trojans' already mixed-up schedule.

After two previous postponements, Pottstown was all set to play Coatesville this afternoon. Now that game has been moved back to next Tuesday by agreement of both coaches.

A league ruling states that if a game is postponed it must be played the next day if possible. That is the reason the Trojans will meet Bridgeport today instead of going ahead with the much-shifted Coatesville contest.

* * *

GOOD IS ALSO making adjustments in his lineup to fit his present needs. Instead of using Bill Kerr as he announced Sunday, the Pottstown pilot will send his ace right-hander, Mike Kriczky into battle today.

Kerr, with Don Stetler in reserve, will be used Thursday when West Chester plays here. A victory for Kriczky would boost the Trojans' undefeated string to 31.

Coatesville and Pottstown are the current undefeated teams in the league along with Berwyn which has its no-hit pitcher Chet Knight ready to go against the Red Raiders in their important battle next Monday.

PHS RUNNERS FACE NORRISTOWN TODAY

A track victory at Norristown today would be quite an achievement for Pottstown High even though the Trojans runners have won three out of four meets to date.

Several of the Norristown trackmen who swamped Pottstown the past year are again leading the Eagles to big wins. But the Trojans are a vastly improved club and promise to grab more than a few points at today's meet.

After its third place showing in the Ches-Mont relays, the Trojans will be running for the fourth time in seven days.

Walt Fillman, still undefeated in individual competition after eight races, will be trying to extend his string through both of the short dashes and the 120-yard low hurdles event.

Some of the other potential point winners Coach Heeb Mevers is relying on, are: Dave Gillis in the 100, 220 and broad jump, Bob Zeigler, half mile; Lloyd Hughes and Carl Burns, quarter mile; Ken Shaner, mile; Bob Sutton and Ron Downie, discus and shotput; Dick Fine, Carl Burns and Sutton, broad jump; Earl Rodgers and George Henderson, high jump; and Al Bodolus and Clark Burns, pole vault.

Golden Cubs Open Baseball Campaign

After several weeks of trying to squeeze practice sessions in between Senior High athletic events and the rain drops, the Pottstown Junior High baseball team is ready to open today.

Conshohocken - with an assist from the Weather Man - will help the Golden Cubs lift the lid at Franklin field at 3:15 o'clock.

Coach Gene Kauler slimmed his squad down from its usual early bulk to 19 players. He said last night he plans to add about five more.

Jack Seasholtz will get the starting pitcher's job against Conshy. His battery mate will be a returning regular from the past year's team, Mike Lunn.

* * *

AROUND THE INFIELD, the Cubs will open with Charlie Catanzaro, 1b; Tom Drauschak, 2b; Mike Griesemer, ss; and Bobby Grow, 3b.

Kauler's starting outfield will be Bill Ellis in left, Wilson Bedel in center, and Tom Ozoroski, right.

Jim Hallman and Bobby Weiser will be ready to hurl if Seasholtz runs into any trouble.

Other reserve infielders are Dick Hurter, Paul Rhoades, Bob Sandoe, Ron Baldassano and Wally Berkey. Second line outfielders are Ken Wensel and Lin Bittner, and Stan Hallman is ready to relieve Lunn behind the plate.

Jack Bechtel, No. 1 man, was about the only player who wasn't threatened by the underlings striving for a starting job. Paul Stofko beat off several challenges and will probably retain his No. 2 spot.

* * *

LENNY LEVIN has been playing much improved golf and McCabe is considering a promotion for the little Junior. That would mean a demotion for either Buffy Schoenly No. 3, or Wally Van Dyke, No. 4. It's possible one of these two will be switched with Levin.

The No. 6 job lies between Larry Lerch, Bob Drumheller, Mary Joan Czarick and John Morrell. They'll decide it on the course today.

Trojanettes Win, 30-10, in Opener

The weather was raw but the flaming Pottstown High Trojanette bats stirred up enough heat to melt Upper Merion, 30-10, in the girls' softball opener.

Coach Peg Mallady took her team to the Upper Merion playground but the strange surroundings didn't frighten the Pottstown girls.

They started off with 11 runs in the first inning, then gradually tapered off with two, eight, six and zero in the next four. Miss Mallady then sent her ninth and tenth graders in to finish the activities and they held their own.

Marsha Bailer did most of the pitching for Pottstown and struck out six UM batters. Shirley Renninger and Carol Rutter both plastered home runs.

GREENLY OWNS INTERNATIONAL PUG CHAMPION

The only international black, male, pug champion is owned by Pottstown's Fred Greenly.

After bringing the English champion Bluedoor Puggypug Titus to this country in February, Greenly led the three-year-old to his American championship at Arlington, Va., on Saturday.

Competing in the Old Dominian Kennel Club show, Bluedoor won best of winners for his fifth three-point major victory. He acquired his American championship in just five shows.

Before being bought by Greenly, the pug was the only black, male champion of his breed in England. Under the British Kennel club scoring system, it is much more difficult to gain championship status than in America.

Greenly said last night he doubts if he'll show Bluedoor in the competitive ring again. Rather he will be used for siring purposes as Greenly continues in his quest for perfection in the pug breed.

* * *

ALTHOUGH MAKING an international champ was the big news in the Greenly household at 1218 South street, the famed breeder and his wife, whose name is always listed as the dog's owner, came home with another stack of ribbons after a profitable weekend.

Fifteen ribbons and five trophies were added to their hugh collection, loot from the three shows in which their pugs appeared Saturday, Sunday and yesterday.

After Bluedoor won his coveted title on Saturday, Ch. Allen's Glory of Spring walked off with some high honors the following two days.

Spring ranked second in the toy group at Timonium, Md., in the Baltimore County Kennel club show. This champion, considered the best pug in the country by many experts, lost in the toy judging by a narrow margin to a valuable pekinese.

* * *

YESTERDAY at Harford County Kennel club show in Bel Air, Md., both dogs again reached the final judging in the toy group. This time the Greenly pug got the blue rib bon and ranked third as the judges selected best in show.

In 10 outings this year, Spring has been named best in group five times, and ranked second on the other five occasions.

It was a banner weekend for the Greenlys.

McCabe's Golfers Defy Weather

Just as in every other sport, the Winter weather played hob with Pottstown High's golfing forces yesterday.

But the drive and putt boys and girls of Bill McCabe refused to surrender to the thermometer and challenger rounds went on as scheduled.

However, none of the members of the starting team were dethroned, and as it now stands the lineup against visiting Berwyn tomorrow will be the same as in the opener.

Jack Bechtel, No. 1 man, was about the only player who wasn't threatened by the underlings striving for a starting job. Paul Stofko beat off several challenges and will probably retain his No. 2 spot.

* * *

LENNY LEVIN has been playing much improved golf and McCabe is considering a promotion for the little Junior. That would mean a demotion for either Buffy Schoenly No. 3, or Wally Van Dyke, No. 4. It's possible one of these two will be switched with Levin.

The No. 6 job lies between Larry Lerch, Bob Drumheller, Mary Joan Czarick and John Morrell. They'll decide it on the course today.

SWEEP RELAYS, FOUR OTHER EVENTS

Pottstown JHS Trackmen Maul Phoenix Juniors, 97-32

Pottstown Junior High's Ches-Mont relay champ tracksters added wins in seven other events to their five relay triumphs yesterday to dismantle Phoenixville Junior High, 97-32, on the losers' grounds.

The Golden Cubs, coached by Charlie Wismer, swept four out of the 11 individual events and won 12 in all in racking up a one-sided victory in their initial dual outing of the season.

They swept the 85-pound 50-yard dash, the 100-yard dash, the 220 and the broad jump, with Lin Walton, Jim Gibbons, Ed Sobresky and Don Endy copping the first in each event, respectively.

Ken Gillis copped the 100-pound 45-yard dash and Dave Thomas won the 115-pound 75-yard dash in the other local individual track wins. In the field events John O'Such won the pole vault. Endy also tied for first in the high jump with Phoenixville's Art Van Horn.

Turpin At Top

WASHINGTON, April 21 (AP)—The National Boxing association's Spring ratings, out today, narrow the hot middleweight title contest down to four men, with England's Randy Turpin listed at the top.

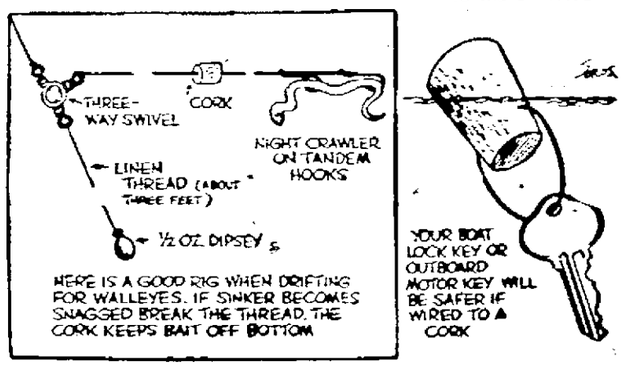

The title has been vacant since Sugar Ray Robinson retired from the ring, and all has been confusion in the ratings ever since. But the NBA said it is prepared to recognize a champion from among Turpin, Bobo Olson of Hawaii, Charles Humez of France and Paddy Young of New York.

Gernert Swings Mean Mace as Bosox Blast Senators Twcie, 11-4, 4-2

BOSTON, April 20 (AP) — Dick Gernert today swung a bat reminiscent of Boston sluggers of past seasons in leading the Red Sox to two Patriots' Day victories over the Washington Senators 4-2 and 11-4.

Gernert tall husky first baseman whacked a pair of home runs in the morning contest witnessed by 5,385 and blasted a homer and a three run double which just missed being his fourth homer—in the afternoon game before 7,531.

It was the home opener for the Sox, twice snowed out on earlier dates, and the thermometer in the press box registered only 39 degrees when lefthander Mel Parnell made the first pitch of the day.

Parnell helped out at the end by Ellis Kinder and Bill Kennedy won the opener and another southpaw erratic Maurice McDermott, was credited with the second game triumph although he, too was replaced near the end.

Gernert's first homer in the second inning of the opener was Boston's first run after 19 scoreless innings. It just about made the nets atop the left field fence.

His other two homers were well hit line drives into the same screen which, in the past has been dented by such nostalgic Boston players as Bobby Doerr, Rudy York, Jimmy Foxx, Joe Cronin.

Big Dick's three run double was a long high smash which bounced off the flagpole in deepest center missing the center field bleachers by only a couple of feet.

That smash highlighted a seven run outburst in the seventh inning in which 11 Sox batted.

The attack was set off by a double by McDermott for whom a runner was inserted and Ken Holcombe finished the game.

Parnell who now has a 19-3 lifetime record against Washington was yanked in the eighth after walking two batters. Reliefer Kinder gave up a run scoring double to Mickey Grasso and then got the side out.

Kinder was replaced with two out in the ninth and runners on second and third after a double by Jackie Jensen. Left hander Kennedy was brought in to pitch to the lefthanded batting Pete Runnels who ended things by flying out.

Mantle Booster

WASHINGTON, April 20 (AP)—A Federal judge took judicial notice today of Mickey Mantle's long home run here last week and disagreed with sportswriters who said the ball was boosted along by a brisk tail wind.

US District Judge James R. Kirkland told a jury that he was there and the wind wasn't blowing.

For 30 years, man and boy, the judge said he has been watching baseball. He said Mantle's swat was the greatest of them all and that goes for homers by Ted Williams, Babe Ruth, and other power hitters.

Hamner's Homer Tops Giants

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

GRANNY HAMNER

JOHNNIE WYROSTEK

NEW YORK, April 20 (AP) — Granny Hamner's home run into the upper left field stands in the ninth inning today gave the Philadelphia Phillies' Robin Roberts his first victory of the season, 2-1, over the New York Giants.

Roberts choked off the Giants with three hits as he and Larry Jansen rushed through a tight pitching duel in 1 hour and 40 minutes in the icy air.

Only 2,538 hardy customers paid to see the contest. They were bundled in top coats and blankets that came in handy during a brief snow flurry while the Phils were batting in the first.

Roberts, beaten by Jansen at Philadelphia opening day, pitched brilliant ball in the biting cold. He shut out the Giants after allowing a first inning run on a walk to Bobby Thomson and Monte Irvin's looping double off the right field wall. A better throw to the plate by right fielder Johnny Wyrostek might have nailed Thomson.

There was no sign of a let off Jansen until the fourth. He had retired 11 men in succession when Wyrostek laced a single to center.

Wyrostek's line drive homer on the facade of the upper right field stands tied the score in the sixth.

It looked like sure extra innings with both Roberts and Jansen pitching in great form until Hamner broke it up in the ninth. The Phils' shortstop hit a 3-1 pitch deep into the upper seats.

Thomson gave the Giants a dying gasp hope with a long smash opening the last of the ninth. Richie Ashburn raced deep into right center to catch the 450 foot drive.

Pottstown boy Chuck McCarthy—a standout performer all season for the Norristown State hospital quint—proved his worth at the expense of a local quint by pocketing 26 counters last night as the Staters downed the Pottstown Stars 102-78, at Norristown.

McCarthy bucketed 12 fielders and two fouls for the victors, who trailed 45-44 at the half, but gradually pulled away after intermission as they assumed control of the backboards.

Hal Schwemmer canned 21 for the winners followed by John Mazzik's 15. Dick Powell dunked 9 for the Pottstown quint hitting consistently from long range. Doug Moser and Jim Price split 29 also for Pottstown.

BILKO DRIVES IN 4

Cards Trim Braves, 9-4; Presko Wins

ST LOUIS, April 20 (AP) — Big Steve Bilko hammered across four runs with a homer and single tonight as the St. Louis Cardinals pounded out 13 hits for a 9-4 victory over the Milwaukee Braves.

Victims of the heavy St. Louis assault were four Milwaukee pitchers, with the defeat pinned on Warren Spahn, the Braves' southpaw star who defeated the Redbirds in Milwaukee's historic opener a week ago 3 to 2. Spahn gave up four runs in four innings including a homer by Del Rice.

In addition to Bilko's slugging Red Schoendienst singled twice and belted a double to lead the St. Louis hit parade with three safeties. Solly Hemus, Stan Musial and Enos Slaughter hit safely twice each and Slaughter knocked in the first two runs with a first inning double.

Joe Presko little St. Louis right-hander pitched into the ninth in his first start of the season and was replaced after giving up the Braves' eighth and final hit, a single by Jack Dittmer, who earlier had contributed his second homer of the season. The veteran Al Brazle quickly retired the side.

Bilko's homer, a tremendous 420 foot drive to left center, came off Virgil Jester with two on in the fifth just after the Braves had pulled within one run of the Cardinals.

Chisox Look Hitless, But Not Like Wonders

CHICAGO, April 20 (AP)— Can it be that the 1953 Chicago White Sox are a throwback to the "hitless wonders" of 1906?

With a team batting mark of .162 so far they are definitely hitless.

But they haven't done anything to prove they are the wonders like the 1906 White Sox who averaged only .228, but won the American League pennant and beat the Chicago Cubs four games to two in the World Series.

Billed as flag contenders this season, the Sox have had to be held up mostly by luck in winning two games in four starts.

Monmouth Park ranked fifth among all race tracks in the nation in total purse distribution in 1952. The course dispersed $1,786,645 for a daily average of $36,308.

Portuguez Rallies To Spoil Panter's Debut in the East

BROOKLYN, April 20 (AP)—Tuzo (Kid) Portuguez of Costa Rica came from behind tonight to score a split decision 10-round victory over Garth Panter and spoil the Salt Lake City middleweight's New York debut at Eastern Parkway Arena. Portuguez weighed 160 1/2; Panter 162 1/2.

Judge Arthur Schwartz voted for Portuguez 5-4-1 and referee Ray Miller scored it for Tuzo 4-4-2, even in rounds, but he had the Costa Rican ahead on points, 6-4. The other judge, Jack O'Sullivan cast his ballot for the westerner 5-4-1. The AP scoreboard had Portuguez in front 6-4.

Panter, a 22 year old husky who had lost a 10 rounder to top-ranking Bobo Olson a month ago, started out like he was going to rush Tuzo right out of the fight. He swept three of the first four rounds scoring effectively with thumping body punches.

But Portuguez began to come on in the fifth and fought his opponent at his own game.

He countered Panter's body punches with a battering body barrage of his own. Through the next three rounds, Tuzo softened up his opponent with body punches and then bombed his aggressive rival with stunning combinations to the head.

IN THE SEVENTH round, the Costa Rican shook up Panter three times with rights to the head. In the eighth, he rocked him with a left hook to the jaw. In the tenth, Panter out to score a knockout, dropped Portuguez to one knee with a short right to the jaw.

Tuzo jumped up quickly and fired a right back at his opponent. The referee did not make Portuguez take the mandatory eight-count. He said he thought it was a slip, not a knockdown.

Miller explained later that he gave Panter the round by one point, but that even if he had recognized a knockdown he would have only given the loser two points. All of the officials gave the Westerner the last round.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

KIN HUBBARD'S famous formula for ridding a home of roaches reads: "Procure a box of roach powder from the nearest drugstore, being careful to have the druggist guarantee it. Scatter it freely about the sink and pantry, repeating the dose each day until the powder is all gone. In a few days the roaches will realize that you are not going to buy any more and will desert the premises."

It was Hubbard, incidentally, who really coined the oft-quoted "What the country needs is a good five-cent cigar." Vice President Tom Marshall, who merely borrowed the phrase, usually got the credit.

• • •

Kin Hubbard's Uncle Frank was a character in his own right. Returning to his home in Bellefontaine, O., he had to attend a funeral immediately. No black tie was handy so he turned an old umbrella cover into a funeral four-in-hand.

When You Sacrifice to Buy Yourself a Home, You Are Doing Yourself a Big Favor

If you are now just a tenant and spending a husky chunk of your income on a rented place, it hurts doesn't it. Wouldn't it be great to own title to a place of your own that would probably cost you less monthly to buy than you pay for rent. Wouldn't it be great to have your payments constantly adding to your estate instead of somebody else's. You can buy your home if you will sacrifice a bit. Your real estate broker will help you with your financing. Just turn now to the MERCURY WANT ADS, find the home you want and then act.

HARTENSTINE

The family of the late Sara R. Hartenstine desires to thank the kind neighbors and friends for the assistance and sympathy extended and the floral tributes and use of cars offered during their recent bereavement.

In Memoriam 3

DAVIDHEISER—In memory of a beloved Mother, Maggie Davidheiser, who passed away April 21, 1949.

Two bright eyes, a tender smile,
A loving heart that knew no guile;
Deep trust in God that all was right;
Her joy to make some other bright.
If sick or suffering one she knew
Some gentle act of love she'd do.
No thought of self, but of others.
I know He said, "Well done dear Mother."

Sadly missed by daughters
CARRIE, MAMIE
and Granddaughter MILDRED.

Marine Grabs Fire Truck For His Washington Jaunt

ARLINGTON, Va., April 20 (AP)—A young Quantico Marine took a notion to go to Washington during the early predawn hours this morning. For transportation he garbbed the base fire truck.

Arlington police prowl car officers surprised when the fire truck roared past them on Lee highway gave chase-and stopped it.

Pfc. W. Eugene Burness, 19, New Haven, Conn., told them, officers said, he was headed for Washington. But he had no papers or orders.

So police took him to head quarters and called the Quantico Marine base to send for him.

He's back on the base now explaining. Arlington police said no charges were placed against him.

Norco Classes Busy Preparing for Show Of Spring Fashions

By BARBARA GOSWELLIN

The home economics department of the North Coventry High school is busy preparing for their annual Spring fashion show.

The motto is "bigger and better." The show will be put on in four acts on May 5 in the elementary building.

The first act is a play put on by the Eighth grade girls showing the dresses they made.

The second act is the "fashion magazine" featuring the Ninth and Tenth grades with dresses of Spring colors.

* * *

THE THIRD ACT is called "Kitchen Tips" by the Juniors and Seniors displaying clothing uniforms and garments.

The fourth act is the "Side walk review" the student's model suits made by the Seventh and Ninth grades.

This will be followed by the finale.

The models will walk across the stage and down through the auditorium.

English Pupils Finish Four-Week Unit on Elizabethan Period

By BARBARA KENNEDY

The Twelfth grade academic and vocational English section under Mrs. H. Clark has recently finished a four weeks unit of work on the Elizabethan period. Shakespeare and Macbeth. As the class started the study of "Macbeth" many of the pupils were worried about its difficulty and their inability to understand it.

With the help of notes, the teacher's explanations, and recordings by Orson Wells, the study of the play was less difficult than anticipated.

In the Fall the section had some review of grammar and of methods of improving composition. We are now having a quick review of punctuation and spelling.

* * *

WE HAVE BEEN doing original written work in the form of poems, informal essays, and articles. Some pupils have occasionally attempted short plays or short stories.

We are now doing outside reading in preparation for our Seventh and final book report.

Most of us have completed required reports and are choosing types of literature that we particularly like.
